EXHIBITOR INFORMATION

Please Note: This information applies to all Classes & Sections offered for the 2011 Western Fair. See individual Class and Section Rules for additions and/or exceptions to this information.

1. All rules that apply to Western Fair events and any which specifically apply to the dates that the Western Fair runs will be enforced from the date the entry office opens August 8, 2011 until September 21, 2011.
2. Entry Forms and applicable fees must be in the hands of the Western Fair Association by 5:00 p.m. on the day specified for each Class as the Closing Date for Entries, unless otherwise noted.
3. Entries must be made online or on the printed entry form(s) included with the Prize Book or on a same size photocopy of the entry form. The entry form is to be filled out and signed by the exhibitor, then sent, online or mailed/delivered with entry fees to:
Competitions Supervisor
Western Fair Association
316 Rectory Street
London, ON N5W 3V9
4. The Western Fair Association will forward an entry tag per exhibit to the exhibitor or depending upon the Class, supply a tag upon arrival of the exhibit at Western Fair. The entry tag must be securely attached to each exhibit, and the bottom perforated portion of the tag must be retained as identification and a claim check for each exhibit.
5. The Western Fair Association reserves the right to accept or reject any entry, and to display only those exhibits that are of acceptable quality or that exhibit space permits.
6. Exhibits which have been shown at any previous Exhibition of the Western Fair Association may not be entered. Unless otherwise stated, all articles must be strictly the production of the person making the entry, and must have been completed within the last three years (since September 2008)
7. If any question is raised as to the exhibitor's production, ownership or right to compete, the Committee may require the exhibitor to make a statutory declaration that the article in question is the production and property of the exhibitor.
8. Exhibitors may make only one entry in any one section, unless otherwise specified. The same exhibit or article may not be entered in more than one class and/or section.
9. Exhibitors must choose the Class and Section in which they enter exhibits. However, the Western Fair Association may transfer any exhibit which is entered into a wrong Class or Section into the proper Class or Section. Prior to judging, the Western Fair may combine any Section or Sections where there are not sufficient entries to provide competition. Competition-A competition that may be judged and prize money awarded requires 2 entries per section i.e. 3 sections = 6 entries. Otherwise only a ribbon will be awarded to the single entrant for a placing decided by the judge for that particular competition.
10. In all Classes and Sections, the Judge(s)' and/or Committee's decision is final, except where fraud, misrepresentation or collusion, not discovered at the time of the award, is proven. In such cases, the Executive Committee of the Western Fair Association shall make the final decision.
11. In all Classes & Sections the Judge(s) and/or Committee may decide:
 - Not to award a prize
 - To ask for a tie. In this event prize winners will equally divide prize money for that section.
 - To move an entry to another section, prior to judging.
 - To question authenticity of an exhibit.
12. Exhibits may be delivered by courier to the Administration Building, on the dates specified by Class and Division:
Competitions Supervisor
Administration Building,
316 Rectory Street
London, ON N5W 3V9
13. Exhibits may be delivered in person to the designated location on the dates specified by class.
14. Exhibitors must arrange and prepay all expenses for delivery of their exhibits to and from the fairgrounds. The Western Fair Association will not provide or pay for any expenses associated with transportation, either on delivery to or return from the fairgrounds.

15. Exhibitors assume all risk for the safety of their exhibits, and should any article be damaged, lost or stolen, the Directors of the Western Fair Association will assist in the recovery of same, but will not assume any liability for payment of loss.
16. The right to alter, interpret, amend, add to or cancel any of these rules or to grant relaxation from them is reserved to the Board of Directors of the Western Fair Association. Should dispute arise between any exhibitors, whether a private individual, company, corporation or government, and the Association or its officers, the dispute or difference shall be referred to the Fair Directors, whose decision will be final.
17. Should any question arise which is not provided for in the Information for Exhibitors the decision of the Fair Directors of the Western Fair Association shall be final.
18. The Western Fair Association will not be responsible for the payment of prizes or any form of sponsorship offered by Businesses, Clubs, Societies or Individuals.
